THE TIME HAS COME FOR A NEW POLITICAL PARADIGM
The FREEDOM Process

Over the years, I have found that it is helpful to resolve complex issues into their key components. To apply this principle to the issues that are confronting our Nation, I have created The FREEDOM Process in which:

- F stands for Foreign Policy – foreign aid, international trade, diplomatic relations, the U.N., etc.
- R stands for Resource Policy – energy, environmental issues, natural resources, other assets, etc.
- E stands for Economic Policy – jobs, business expansion, debt management, the money supply, etc.
- E stands for Education Policy – primary, secondary, trade and higher education content and assistance, etc.
- D stands for Defense Policy – proactive and reactive defense capabilities against foreign & domestic threats
- O stands for Operations Policy – operating efficiencies, regulatory issues, immigration, human resource, etc.
- M stands for Medical Policy – health care costs, Medicare, Medicaid, quality of life issues, etc.

Fundamental policy statements can be aligned within The FREEDOM Process, which is the way I will organize my positions for your convenience. It can also be used as a basis for determining whether a particular solution can be further enhanced in a way that could favorably impact additional policy elements.

In that latter capacity, The FREEDOM Process provides a path that can be followed to question each recommended course of action to see if it can be enhanced to address additional issues. You should always question a candidate's position (including mine). It may lead to a better solution ... and it will always lead to helping you become more informed as a voter.

Your right to vote bears a significant responsibility: the need to make informed decisions. You shouldn't let a television ad, a political pundit, or a bumper sticker influence your decision. Take the time to become informed about the issues and the candidates. Every vote counts, and your vote represents your contribution to the future. Please take your responsibility seriously.

QUESTION OF THE DAY: Do you focus on the concept of income tax, or do you recognize all forms of taxation?

"The most insidious tax is the 'Ignorance Tax'...the debt, fines, fees and inflation created by Government that voters seem to ignore."
